The Sub-Committee may wish to consider the application on the basis of the application itself, the information supplied by the applicant and objections and any representations received. It must, however, bear in mind that if, after consideration of this information, it is minded to refuse the application, it must give the applicant an opportunity to be heard before it concludes its deliberations.

Guidance for Members: Grounds for refusal of application

- C. that the number of sex establishments in the relevant locality at the time of the application is made is equal to or exceeds the number which the authority consider is appropriate for that locality.
- D. that the grant or renewal of the licence would be inappropriate, having regard
 - (i) to the character of the relevant locality; or
 - (ii) to the use to which any premises in the vicinity are put;or,
 - (iii) to the layout, character or condition of the premises, vehicle, vessel or stall in respect of which the application is made

An applicant may at any time, before the expiration of 21 days from the date of notification, appeal to the Magistrates' Court if the application is refused.

Similarly, the holder of the licence has 21 days to appeal to the Magistrates' Court if aggrieved by any term, condition or restriction placed upon the licence.

These rights of appeal do not apply if refusal is due to the status of the applicant under section 12(1) of the Act and also do not apply if refusal is due to either Ground C or D referred to in the above-mentioned Grounds for Refusal.

5. Effect upon Policy Framework & Procedure Rules

5.1 None

6. Equality Impact Assessment

6.1 There are no implications in relation to age; disability; gender and transgender; race; religion or belief and non-belief or sexual orientation.
