62. Social Services and Wellbeing Commissioning Strategies 2023-28

Decision Made	RESOLVED: Following consideration of the report and discussion with the Cabinet Member and Officers, the committee made the following comments: Financial Resources and Achievability Whilst fully supporting the basis and argument behind the Commissioning Strategies, Members expressed concern regarding the potential funding available to take them forward given the difficult current, and predicted future, budget situation. The Committee appreciate that the exact financial requirements would not been known until full business cases had been developed, however, on face value Members queried whether the strategies were entirely realistic and achievable even on work scheduled for year one, given the Authority's resources, both financial and staff based. Members agreed to monitor this closely in any future related work the Committee considers, and also requested that this be referred to the Corporate Overview and Scrutiny Committee for examination under their regular budget monitoring item. Consistency of data provided The Committee commented on the data displayed in the strategies and that at times there were percentages provided whilst other times figures are quoted. Members proposed that there be a consistent approach throughout the document for ease of reference, particularly for the public.

SUBJECT OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY COMMITTEE 2 - MONDAY, 19 FEBRUARY 2024

	Following a query as to how the Committee could assist the service area in any way in taking the Commissioning Strategies forward, it was proposed and agreed by the Committee that Members be encouraged to share the key messages with their fellow Councillors as well as their constituents in respect of managing expectations. Members were asked to spread the word that services will be provided differently in future with more innovative practices, such as a series of short-term services for individuals, rather than possibly full long-term packages of care from the start. This was to try and reduce demand and pressure on services and also proved more successful at enabling people to regain their independence. Additional Information The Committee requested that they receive copies of the presentations referred to by the Deputy Leader and Cabinet Member – Social Services and Health that were presented to the recent Regional Partnership Board.
