Cafe Bar No11

Dear, Xenia & Ceri

Having attended several events at Café Bar No11 over the past few months, and as a business owner myself.

I thought I would share my experiences for your current and future customers to read.

Café Bar No11 is an extremely well-run business albeit in their first year of trading, catering for everyone's needs, from the local school children and parents and their extended families.

Currently Café Bar No11 holds a level 5 Food Hygiene Rating, the quality of the food and drinks along with the cleanliness of the Café is among one of the reasons me and family keep returning.

Over recent months my wife and I have attended several evening events, along with friends.

These nights have been extremely well organised and in huge demand due to the standard of entertainment and hospitality.

The owners always taking in to consideration the residents and are mindful of the noise levels that are constantly being monitored by them.

The guests are always well behaved in each event that I have attended, there is a real sense of warmth and happiness.

Wishing you all the very best, you both truly deserve it keep up the good work.

Kindest Regards

Ryan Woodbridge

Ref: Application for Alcohol Licence, Café Bar 11, 11 Ewenny Rd, Bridgend.

I write in support of your application for an alcohol licence at Café Bar 11.

The site lies in a designated 'commercial area' as described in the council adopted Bridgend Local Plan (Six Bells Commercial Area). Thus, the main land use is commercial and one would expect a modicum of hussle and bustle in such an area that shows that it is alive and creates a pleasant culture. Use of the premises in the evening also adds vitality and viability to the night time economy of the area.

I have attended one evening event at the premises and noted that the premises are modest in scale and character and the patrons were mature and well behaved. My understanding is that the licence would not allow drinks to be served after a certain time and no drinks allowed outside. This seems sensible. I also note that the Bridgend Athletic Club, Spar and Cabo Roche and Six Bells are open to 11 and so there is already movement and some noise before these times in this area anyway. So therefore, the additional use in the evening of the premises with an alcohol licence will not adversely change the character or amenity of the area.

I hope that the Council as licensing authority will support this application.

Yours sincerely

Rob Hathaway

Hi Ceri & Xenia

I would like to say thank you on behalf of my 3 customer and myself for the Nigel Owens event you put on at Café Bar No:11 last Thursday. I've been to many events but the fact you can spend time with a sporting icon like Nigel Owens in such a personal environment is unique, The company was fantastic and once again yourselves and your staff were a pleasure to be around.

I look forward to the next event.

Many thanks

We have spent several evenings at a variety of pre arranged events in No11 Cafe Bar and have had a really enjoyable time. The events are always organised to a very high standard and very professionally run.

Hi ladies,

I just wanted to drop you an email to say thank you for such a fabulous night last week at no11. As always, the service was outstanding and the atmosphere was simply at its best. Nigel was an absolute pleasure to listen to; you never fail to entertain us with your guest speakers!

Yet again, you offered such an intimate experience as you have done on so many different occasions. I have never failed to come away from no11 disappointed.

I look forward to any other events you may have to offer in the future and I really hope this can become a more regular occurrence.

Thanks once again,

Kelly Roberts

Subject: Cafe No. 11 Bar

I am writing this e-mail to support Cafe Bar No. 11 with regard to the events they hold and how they are organised

I have attended the Cafe Bar on several occasions over the past few months with the obvious emphasis of concern to residents being the main priority

All events finish by 11pm with minimum disruption to neighbouring properties

I look forward to the events and welcome the arrival of a respected business to the town of Bridgend

Kind regards
Wayne Barrington
