

Representations – Licensing Enforcement

Olivias Coffee House, 15 Well Street, Porthcawl, CF36 3BE

Licensing authority officers in their role as a responsible authority make the following representations:

- a. There is no wind down period of 30 minutes after the Sale of Alcohol has ceased, as to enable customers to finish their drinks in a timely manner prior to the premises closing, even though an extension to hours' is referred to in Section M (b) The Prevention of Crime and Disorder
- b. In the application under the premises description and shown on the premises plan, it is stated there is a rear outside area, there is no reference in the operating schedule to the management and supervision of the said area, as to prevent public nuisance, crime and disorder, public safety and protection of children from harm.
- c. It is stated in the application that alcohol will only be served with meals, it is impractical to suppose that patrons will be attending the premises up to 02:00 for the consumption of food and therefore suggest the end of alcohol consumption and late night refreshment ceases at 23:30.
- d. There is no reference to any CCTV operating within the licensed area
- e. Non-Standard timings state '12 other event days per annum at the applicant's discretion', no information is given on the type of events or if the Local Authority will be informed of such events.
