

Community Cohesion Programme Workplan

Theme 1 - Mainstreaming Cohesion
Objective 1.1 - Mainstream community cohesion in public bodies and wider community through training* and awareness raising, dovetailing with other Welsh Government legislation and policies, including Well-being of Future Generations Act, the Socio-Economic Duty, Nation of Sanctuary, Cymraeg 2050, the Anti-Racist Wales Action Plan, and the LGBTQ+ action plan, and any others that are developed during the lifespan of the funding such as the Disability Rights Action Plan, due in 2024. *Training may be commissioned or directly delivered by teams, but only if in-house expertise is sufficient to enable high-quality training to be delivered.
Action	Impact	Evidence
Provide, commission, or coordinate community cohesion related training, for local authority staff, other public bodies staff, third sector, elected officials, or others with a key role to play in building community cohesion.	Delivery of more inclusive services. Better understanding of the communities served.	Training/Information Sharing Log with narrative included in the monitoring form. Please do not include examples of training attended.
Seek opportunities to deliver initiatives with other cohesion regions on a cross-regional or all-Wales basis where appropriate.	Avoids duplication and ensures the best use of resource.	As above
Objective 1.2 - Act as conduits between communities and public bodies to promote participation in policymaking and equality of opportunity for communities
Action	Impact	Evidence
Ensure that public bodies are engaging with minority groups and considering their perspectives and circumstances when developing policies or taking decisions which are likely to affect them. This would include Well-being Plans, Strategic Equality Plans, Equality Impact Assessments, and/or Community Safety planning.	Policymaking should be more inclusive of minority communities.	Engagement Event Log with narrative included in the monitoring form. Capture case studies of co-production and share with other cohesion teams and public bodies across Wales. Promote and monitor the role of the cohesion team in inclusive policymaking.
